Senator Campbell Condemns California-sized Overreach of San Antonio City Council

AUSTIN – "Today's vote by the San Antonio City Council is extremely disappointing and disheartening for the job creators, entrepreneurs, and multi-generational family-owned restaurants who represent the blood, sweat, and tears of our city. If left unchallenged, this California-sized overreach into the daily operations of private businesses will have a negative effect on wages and jobs while making it harder for small businesses to stay open. I stand ready to introduce legislation that protects the rights of business owners and the best interests of the Texas economy."
